

Capital Region BEC online Newsletter March 2005.

March is a busy month at the CRBEC, here are some things we hope will interest you.

Enjoy breakfast with the NSW minister for Small Business.

The Minister David Campbell will be speaking about the role Small Business plays in NSW and the programs available to support small business. Wednesday 13th April 2005.

Further Details: <http://www.crbec.com.au/Apr%2005%20Breakfast%20Invite.htm>

Business Smarts!

This program facilitates the formal recognition of the experience and expertise of small business operators, who have not had the opportunity to convert their knowledge to recognised qualifications. You could benefit from participating in this program in several ways: For further details follow the link:

<http://www.crbec.com.au/Other%20Pages/Business%20Smarts.htm>

Women in Business Conference- 1st June 2005

The Chamber of Women in Business is holding their annual conference with the theme 'Moving from good to great in business'. The program includes practical sessions for business women on pricing to make a profit and learning steps to keep your life in balance. Follow the link to learn more: http://www.crbec.com.au/OtherPages/Whats On.htm

Pricing and Costing – free CD from DSRD.

The NSW Department of State and Regional Development has produced an excellent CD called 'Pricing and Costing' – managing for a profitable business.

Some of the topics covered are: What is cost structure, How are prices determined?, What is break-even point?, How does profit differ from cash flow?

Email Fiona at the Capital Region BEC at admin@crbec.com.au and she will post you your free copy.

Visit the Capital Region BEC Website www.crbec.com.au for further items of interest to your business this month.