

Capital Region BEC Online Newsletter July 2006.

In this Newsletter I have included your invitation to the August BEC Networking Breakfast with Hugh Percy, an invitation to the launch of an exciting new initiative linking young people and business, details of a valuable Workshop called 'Business – is it for you?' and also details on how to access the most up to date government information and services. Interested? Please read on!

Capital Region BEC Network Breakfast – Tuesday 1st August 2006.

This month's breakfast topic is "How to deal with your local council" and features Hugh Percy. Hugh is the former General Manager of the Queanbeyan City Council.

Hugh is well known as a 'down to earth' entertaining speaker with a commitment to small business and his community.

For further details please follow the link:

<http://www.crbec.com.au/Aug%2006%20Breakfast%20Invite.htm>

As a local business person you are invited to come to the launch by Gary Nairn (member for Eden Monaro) of the Capital Region LCP and the Career Advice Australia initiative.

The Capital Region LCP assists young people to gain the skills to help them achieve a successful transition from school to further education, training and Employment.

We do this by partnering with businesses, schools, community organizations, professional career advisers and others.

Come to the launch and learn how this exciting series of programs will operate. I look forward to seeing you there.

For further details please follow the link:

<http://www.crbec.com.au/LCP%20Launch%20July%2006.htm>

Running your own business can be exciting, fun, demanding and stressful all at the same time.

So if you know someone who is thinking about starting their own small business? – Then here is a terrific introduction for them!

The Capital Region BEC regularly runs workshops for business intenders on behalf of the NSW Department of State and Regional Development.

This Free Workshop provides an overview of the realities of going into business for yourself, including all the risks involved.

This is delivered by Steve Jamieson. Steve is the manager of the Capital Region BEC and has a wealth of knowledge to share with people wanting to start or grow their small business. The next workshop is on Thursday 20th July at 2.00 pm.

For further details please follow the link:

<http://www.crbec.com.au/DSRD%20Workshops%20QBN%202006.htm>

Over 20 pages of Syndicated information and links!

Looking for the latest information on how to register for an Australian Business Number or anything about government business services, then simply follow the new link 'Links" on the Capital Region BEC website.

We have syndicated all the information through www.business.gov.au the business gateway to government information and services. Each evening our web server is automatically updated with the very latest information and services.

Therefore the Capital Region BEC website now has over 20 pages of catalogued links to information on government business services updated daily. Just follow the link.

http://www.crbec.com.au/BEP_Content/default.htm

Visit the Capital Region BEC Website www.crbec.com.au for further items of interest to your business this month.

Best Regards